FERNE FAULKNER - LEAD REIN/FIRST RIDDEN THREE DAY RIDING CLINIC

Ferne has been a member of West Plantagenet Pony club for over 25 years, first as a young rider and the progressing to Chief Coach & has fond memories of camping out with her pony & her friends at the annual WPPC riding school. She has ridden & competed in many disciplines but enjoys dressage the most and was WA team manager for the 2019 Pony Club Nationals in Sydney. In 2018 Ferne joined the State Coaching panel where she has gained & learnt the skills required to further her coaching as well as assist with decisions put forward to the State Coaching Panel. Ferne is a Level 1 coach, a examiner for C-Certificate, A Coach Educator & assessor for Foundation, Preliminary & level 1 Coaches. Ferne enjoys the opportunity to help other riders & coaches to achieve their goals. Coaching at pony club is a way for Ferne to give back what she has learnt & to see the children grow & improve with their horses/ponies. My Advice "always keep striving for improvement & knowledge & to remember to have fun with your pony & fellow riders".
